

Who we are ?

- Lotus Tao's Consciousness Center specializes in 0 Ishiki Healing®, a Japanese art of energetic wellness that offers advanced energy hygiene for mind, body, and space.
- Founded on the discovery by Mr. Osamu Fujishiro in 2007, this unique healing modality works remotely without physical touch, like Wi-Fi, to restore energy to its purest state.
- The practice complements conventional medicine by optimizing energy for vitality, addressing physical discomfort, emotional well-being, relationship energy dynamics, and environmental energy clearing.
- Sessions are conducted via Zoom, WhatsApp, or telephone, requiring no belief system and welcoming skeptics.
- The center offers various services including energy appraisal, energy hygiene, environmental energy clearing, and relationship dynamic clearing, all designed to promote balance, harmony, and natural well-being through the power of Zero Consciousness.
